“10.8 Shareholders may be authorised to participate in a general meeting of shareholders by electronic means, ensuring, notably, any or all of the following forms of participation: (a) a real-time transmission of the general meeting; (b) a real-time two-way communication enabling shareholders to address the general meeting of shareholders from a remote location; and (c) a mechanism for casting votes, whether before or during the general meeting of shareholders, without the need to appoint a proxy who is physically present at the meeting. Any shareholder which participates in a meeting through such means shall be deemed to be present at the place of the meeting for the purposes of the quorum and majority requirements. The use of electronic means allowing shareholders to take part in a meeting may be subject only to such requirements as are necessary to ensure the identification of shareholders and the security of the electronic communication, and only to the extent that they are proportionate to achieving that objective.”

Any lack of a clearly expressed choice in relation to one or more of the various voting instruction options provided above and any contradictory choice will be considered as an instruction to abstain from voting in respect of the proposed resolution by the proxy representative.

In case of a conflict of interest, the proxy representative shall disclose certain specified facts which may be relevant for the undersigned in assessing any risk that the proxy representative might pursue any interest other than the interest of the undersigned. In consideration of this requirement, please note that each of Christoph Barchewitz, Patrick Schmidt and Matthew Price are members of the management board of the Company.
